TANKTICS

Armored combat on the Eastern front of WWII. Includes full-color mounted mapboard and counters. You, as the German tank platoon leader, start the game outnumbered 2 to 1. However, you choose your tank types before each of 5 scenarios. You also specify what your opponent, the computer, is to have before going after or defending the specified objective from the Russians.

24K casset: Atari 400 and 800
32K disk: Apple II, and Atari 800

MIDWAY CAMPAIGN

Your computer controls a huge force of Japanese ships whose objective is to invade and capture Midway Island. In the actual engagement, the Japanese made several tactical errors which cost them the battle. Your computer probably won't make the same mistakes! You command the badly outnumbered and outgunned U.S. Naval Forces. Your only advantage is surprise.

COMPUTER STOCKS & BONDS

Here's your chance to be a Wall Street genius. Players choose a general strategy and invest in the stocks that fit their game-plan. Play it safe, gamble or do a little of both. In a "bear" market players investing heavily could lose their shirts, while a "bull" market would cause them to make great gains. The winner makes the most money through game transactions.
